Promoting and Protecting Boating

Congratulations on achieving your new RYA qualification

The RYA demands very high standards from its Training Centres, instructors and examiners. So we know how hard you've worked to gain your new RYA qualification.

To help you celebrate your success, we've produced a special presentation certificate suitable for framing. Please see the back of your new certificate for details. These are free* to RYA members and are part of a wide range of further benefits that includes member offers and discounts, a quarterly magazine, and access to expert advice and information.

By supporting the RYA as a personal member you will also help us promote and protect boating. We represent your views to local, national and international governments; offer specialist legal and technical advice; coach British sailing teams from beginner to Olympic level; develop training programmes and schemes that are amongst the best known and most highly regarded in the world; ensure the competence and safety of RYA Training Centres; test and monitor the performance of instructors and provide many other essential services and facilities.

Personal membership costs just £34 when you pay by direct debit (£37 by other means). Plus – if you join now – you can save £5 off your first year's subscription by using the voucher above.

So please join now – and help support the future of boating in the best possible way.

Rod Carr
RYA Chief Executive

P.S. The RYA undertakes a wide range of initiatives to attract and encourage people onto the water. We are working constantly to create new opportunities for people to discover the pleasure and excitement of boating, and to make more of their time afloat. For the latest information and advice, and to find out how you can benefit, please visit our website at www.rya.org.uk or call 0845 345 0400.

*RYA members are entitled to one free display certificate per year.
